Telecast of Gyan Darshan

91. SHRIMATI SARLA MAHESHWARI: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are going to stop the educational programme of Gyan Darshan from its National Network from August 1, 2001; and

(b) if so, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRIMATI SUSHMA SWARAJ): (a) and (b) It has been intimated by Prasar Bharati that right since its inception Doordarshan has given high priority to educational programmes. Over a period of time, it has accommodated programmes from University Grants Commission, Central Institute for Education and Technology, State Institute for Education and Technology, Indira Gandhi National Open University and National Literacy Mission. These efforts of Doordarshan culminated into starting of a full-fledged Education Channel called "Gyan Darshan" in collaboration with the Ministry of Human Resource Development.

Doordarshan has also undertaken a restructuring exercise of its programming on DD-National Channel, with a view to meeting its mandate as a Public Service Broadcaster and to ensure that it is in a position to generate revenue to gradually become self-supporting.

Doordarshan is at present discussing with the Ministry of Human Resource Development, the telecast arrangements of educational programmes. No decision has been taken in the matter so far.
